Project No. 2017-1-ES01-KA204-037924

Newsletter #2, November 2018

In this issue:

- Intellectual output #1
- The 2° transnational meeting in Szczecin (PL)
- First year of the project
- Next transnational meeting in Pristina (RKS)

On 24-25 July, the 2^o transnational meeting of this project took place in Szczecin (Poland) hosted by Collegium Balticum at its premises.

First year of the project

During its first six months, the COUNT ME IN project has completed a database of successful projects, ideas and changes implemented or being implemented in EU countries, for a total of 80 cards. They have been included in the SMART platform and you can have full access to them wherever you are and whenever you want by clicking here. You will be finding an interactive map and you will be able to examine each card from country to country, whether they are project, ideas, or changes.

The consortium's next steps will be taken upon the Intellectual output #2, the

Intellectual output

The IO1 includes the development of a SMART platform, a collaborative tool through which any individual or organisation is able to find teaching and learning materials on:

- SMART projects
- SMART ideas
- SMART changes

The EU SMART projects database contains a detailed list of successful projects implemented/ being implemented in EU countries. The SMART Ideas database includes existing and developed tech solutions for common issues. Finally, the SMART Change database is based on good practices and compare strengths and weaknesses of different solutions used so far in numerous communities.

The next project meeting, the 4^o one, will be hosted by Iliria College development of teaching and learning materials for the e-course "digital tools for SMART development".
